Readministering a Diagnostic Test

After all students have completed the diagnostic test, you can review the Class Profile report. Some of your students may have alert icon next to their name indicating that the student may have rushed through the test. These alerts are explained to the right. If the student's test results seem abnormal, you may want to readminister the test.

Red alerts appear when the student has spent less than 11 seconds on average per item for the reading Diagnostic or less than 12 seconds on average per item for the math Diagnostic. At this pace, the student's score is likely lower than his/her true ability level. It's recommended that this student retake the Diagnostic for that subject.

Yellow alerts appear when the student has spent less than 15 seconds on average per item for reading or less than 21 seconds per item on average for math. At this pace, the student's score may be lower than their true ability. If the score is lower than expected, you may want to consider having him/her retake the test.

1. Click the “Assignments” tab.
2. Click the “Diagnostic & Growth Monitoring” sub-tab.
3. Select your class (Math or Reading) from the first drop-down menu.
4. Select your student from the second drop-down menu.
5. Click “Add Diagnostic.” The student will not be able to begin instructional activities until he/she has completed the diagnostic test.
6. A confirmation pop-up box will appear, asking you to confirm this change.

2. Class Norms – Identifies how your students are performing relative to their peers nationwide.
3. Instructional Grouping Profile – tells you how you can best group students in your class for math and/or reading instruction based on the Diagnostic Assessment results. It will also help you plan instruction.
